

January 2, 1919

TWO DEATHS IN ONE FAMILY

Herman and Anton Heuer Died Within Week From Influenza.

Herman and Anton Heuer, both well known young men of this vicinity have passed away during the past week. The former died last Thursday evening, while Anton passed away yesterday.

The death of these splendid young men removes two of the county's high class and worthy citizens. Their sudden departure is a shock to the surviving relatives, as well as to their many friends and neighbors.

Herman Heuer who resided a few miles northeast of Groton died at the Emergency hospital last Thursday evening as a result of an attack of pneumonia which followed the influenza.

Mr. Heuer was born in Lowden, Ia., Oct. 15, 1886 and was just a few months past thirty two years of age. He came to Groton in the fall of 1902 where he has resided since.

Funeral services were conducted Monday by Rev. A. Senne at the Diedrich undertaking parlor and the body laid to rest in the Groton Union cemetery.

Anton Heuer was born at Lowden, Iowa, July 24, 1888, and with the family removed to this vicinity in the fall of 1902. Funeral services will be held tomorrow from Diedrich's undertaking parlor.

Herman and Anton Heuer were thrifty farmers, who will be missed not only by their brothers and sisters, but by all who knew them. They leave to mourn their early death, two brothers, George of Welcome, Minn., Paul, who is in the service and one sister, Anna of Groton.